

PUKA

Puka is a large-leaved evergreen that grows to about 8 m tall, with the distinctly tropical appearance. They have the largest entire leaves in the New Zealand flora.

Puka currently occurs naturally on the Three King Island where it occurs in greater abundance in the relatively sheltered valleys, where soils are thick and conditions are moist.

Puka is a versatile design for a family home. that can be adapted that can be used with a wide range of cladding options.

Features:

- Skillion roof.
- Multiple cladding options available that suite the design to clients specification.
- 4 Bedrooms
- Large open plan living, dining & kitchen
- 2 Bathrooms & WC
- Double Garage
- Set can be easy adapted to suit flat or sloping site.

